Program Selection

Please make sure to download and read the Intern Letter from our website. Roles and responsibilities are outlined in detail in that letter. There is a minimum 3 week commitment to the program. Days off will not be given for vacations.

Returning Interns may select one or two sessions below. Due to the popularity of the program, if you selected two sessions you may only be assigned to one. New Interns may only select one session. You will be contacted via phone once your application is received and your placement determined.

There is a mandatory Grasshopper intern meeting every Wednesday from 11:30 – 12:15. We will discuss all areas of child development at this time. Interns should bring a lunch.
